NOLA MUNICIPAL PRIMARY ELECTION THIS SATURDAY: POLLS OPEN AT 7 A.M.

BATON ROUGE, La.—Secretary of State Tom Schedler reminds Orleans Parish voters that Municipal Primary Elections will be held in New Orleans this Saturday, February 1, 2014. POLLS OPEN AT 7:00 a.m. and close at 8:00 p.m.

“This is an important election for the City of New Orleans and we anticipate a lot of election activity,” said Secretary of State Tom Schedler. “I encourage voters to educate themselves before they go to the polls by looking to see what’s on the ballot and double-checking their precinct location. All of that information can be found using our innovative smart phone app, or by going to our website. It’s quick, it’s easy and it’s right there in the palm of your hand.”

In addition to Election Day information which can be easily accessed via the web, Election Night results can also be found on the Secretary of State’s website, posted in real-time, at www.sos.la.gov. Additionally, the GeauxVote Mobile app also provides election results as well.
