LAST DAY OF EARLY VOTING TUESDAY

Secretary of State Tom Schedler reminds everyone that tomorrow, Tuesday, Nov. 1, 2016, is the last day to cast an early vote in the 2016 Presidential Election. Turnout to date has been extremely high, breaking record numbers from 2008 and 2012. On average, close to 73,000 people cast their vote daily during the early voting period statewide. Through Saturday, 366,620 voters have participated in early voting. A total of 3 million people are registered to vote in Louisiana.

Voters should utilize Louisiana's award-winning smartphone app, GeauxVote Mobile, to find out where to early vote as well as what's on their ballot. In addition to the election for president, there are more than 220 races statewide involving 728 candidates. Additionally, there are six constitutional amendments voters will be asked to decide as well as 78 propositions across 38 parishes.

Citizens who want to vote early may do so in person at their parish Registrar of Voters Office or at other designated locations. For a complete listing of early voting locations visit <https://voterportal.sos.la.gov/EarlyVoting>.
