OLD STATE CAPITOL EXHIBIT FEATURES NEW ORLEANS ARTIST

In order to pay homage to the upcoming celebration of the bicentennial of statehood, Louisiana's Old State Capitol will feature award winning painter Rolland Golden in the exhibit "River and Reverie: Paintings of the Mississippi River by Rolland Golden" from Dec. 7-22, 2011 and Jan. 17 through March 10, 2012. Golden's stunning works of the Mississippi River's majesty and grandeur are displayed in a variety of media.

A native from New Orleans, Golden graduated from the John McCrady Art School in New Orleans. His work has been recognized with awards from the National Arts Club, the American Watercolor Society and the National Watercolor Society. His most recent honor was a Visual Arts Award from the Mississippi Institute of Art and Letters.

The Old State Capitol, located at 100 North Blvd., is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, visit www.sos.la.gov/osc or www.louisianaoldstatecapitol.org.
