Jefferson Place/Bocage Crime Prevention and Improvement District Proposition

Summary: 10-year annual parcel fee of $500 beginning in 2012 which may be increased up to $540 for promoting and encouraging security, beautification and overall betterment of the District to be assessed on all improved parcels not receiving the special assessment level.

Shall Jefferson Place/Bocage Crime Prevention and Improvement District ("District") be authorized to levy an annual parcel fee for promoting and encouraging security, the beautification and overall betterment of the area included within the District and for all related matters set forth in Act 384 of the 2011 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature of five hundred dollars ($500) beginning in 2012 and ending in 2021 and to increase said parcel fee to an amount not to exceed five hundred forty dollars ($540) by duly adopted resolution of the District's Board on each improved parcel not receiving the special assessment level provided by Louisiana Constitution Article VII, Section 18(G)(1) (an estimated $218,500 is reasonably expected to be collected from the initial levy)?
