INSTRUCTIONS

1. File the Articles of Reinstatement, along with the most current annual report, with the Secretary of State's office. If the corporation is reinstating in accordance with R.S. 12:1-1444(C) [option b on the Articles of Reinstatement form], and the annual report is not yet due, a separate written statement listing the names and addresses of the elected directors and officers must accompany this form. The filing fee shall be $75 for the reinstatement, plus $30 for the most current annual report, plus $30 for each annual report not filed between the last annual report and reinstatement (the prior annual report forms do not have to be submitted).
2. The corporation may be reinstated up to five (5) years after the effective date of the termination. If the five year window has expired, the corporation cannot be reinstated.
