III. RIGHT TO VOTE

ELECTION DAY VOTING PROCEDURES

A. You are allowed, by law, three minutes to cast your vote or twenty minutes if entitled to assistance in voting. After this time has elapsed, you must leave the voting area.

B. The person must certify in writing on the provisional ballot envelope that they are a registered voter in the parish before voting a paper provisional ballot.

C. In the event that a paper provisional ballot is not counted, the person has the right to appeal to the local courts, provided timely notice is given.

D. In order for a paper provisional ballot to be counted, you must be a registered voter in the parish in which you are voting, you must have requested assistance in voting, you must have been unable to vote due to a physical disability or have your personal or campaign materials issued by the Office of Motor Vehicles.

2. You are allowed, by law, three minutes to cast your vote or twenty minutes if entitled to assistance in voting. After this time has elapsed, you must leave the voting area.

3. If you make a mistake or “spoil” your ballot, seal the spoiled ballot in the envelope provided, write “spoiled,” and ask a

4. To change your selection, press the box (    ) again. The green "CAST VOTE" button is located in the lower right hand corner.

5. To change your selection, press the box (    ) again. The green "CAST VOTE" button is located in the lower right hand corner.

6. You will be allowed to cast your vote on a paper ballot and you will receive instructions on how to properly seal your ballot. If you have any questions about your paper ballot, contact the registrar of voters or the secretary of state.

7. If you make a mistake or “spoil” your ballot, seal the spoiled ballot in the envelope provided, write “spoiled,” and ask a

8. Your votes are electronically recorded on the voting machine, and you will hear an audible bell sound and the lights will turn off. Part

9. After voting, you are permitted to have the polling place.

E. If a precinct has only one voting machine and it fails on election day, you may vote on a paper ballot until the voting machine is repaired.

F. The person must certify in writing on the provisional ballot envelope that they are a registered voter in the parish before voting a paper provisional ballot.

G. In the event that a paper provisional ballot is not counted, the person has the right to appeal to the local courts, provided timely notice is given.

H. To change your selection, press the box (    ) again. The green "CAST VOTE" button is located in the lower right hand corner.

I. To change your selection, press the box (    ) again. The green "CAST VOTE" button is located in the lower right hand corner.

J. Your votes are electronically recorded on the voting machine, and you will hear an audible bell sound and the lights will turn off. Part

K. After voting, you are permitted to have the polling place.

L. To change your selection, press the box (    ) again. The green "CAST VOTE" button is located in the lower right hand corner.