B. By the curtains with your hands and exit the voting booth.

8. Your votes are electronically recorded on the voting machine, and you will hear an audible bell sound and the lights will turn off. Part of your office or proposition will light back up, and you may make a new selection.

2. You are allowed, by law, six minutes to cast your vote or twenty minutes if entitled to assistance in voting or using the audio voting keypad.

A. Voters in Louisiana may request assistance in voting when they are registering to vote or when making a change to their voter registration.

B.PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY

A. Contact your parish registrar of voters of any changes to your registration.

G. Go to the front of the line with the person who will be assisting you in voting if you have a visible physical disability or have in your possession an enabling tool provided by the Department of Veteran Services.

C. ON ELECTION DAY - A voter who is not marked in the precinct register as being entitled to receive assistance in voting on election day must be assisted if they:

D. To file a complaint with the Office of the Attorney General, consumers may contact the United States Department of Justice toll-free at 1-800-514-0301 or by writing to the Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice, P.O. Box 94125 (8585 Archives Ave.) Department of State.