WHAT ARE WE VOTING FOR?

Every voter in the state will have a U.S. Senate seat and 8 Constitutional Amendments on the ballot. Most voters will also have a U.S. House of Representatives seat on the ballot, with the exception of voters in the 4th Congressional District ("Mike" Johnson went in unopposed).

Within each parish, there will also be local elections, either as part of regular election cycles or to fill vacancies. Check your sample ballot or other resources listed on the right to find out what local races you may have on your ballot.

Some parishes will have propositions—whether for the whole parish, a limited jurisdiction within the parish, or both. Reference the map below to see what kinds of propositions are being voted on in your parish.

ELECT TO PLAN

No need to wait until Election Day. You can start preparing now!
