WHAT ARE WE VOTING FOR?

Gubernatorial elections are held to elect a governor, along with all other statewide offices. Every voter in the state will have these offices on their ballots, in addition to proposed amendments to the Louisiana Constitution.

Seats in the Louisiana legislature are also on the ballot for this election. Most voters will have a State Representative race and/or a State Senator race on their ballots, as well as a seat on the Board of Elementary and Secondary Education.

Voters in all parishes will have local parishwide offices on their ballots. All parishes will have one or more local elections, and some parishes will also have local proposition elections.
