STATEMENT ON ILLEGAL VOTING INDICTMENT ANNOUNCED MONDAY BY THE U.S. ATTORNEY, EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

BATON ROUGE, La. — “The federal indictment of Denise Nataly Migliore announced Monday is the direct result of Louisiana’s proactive efforts to identify and investigate individuals who may be unlawfully registered to vote. This case originated from information identified through Louisiana’s use of the federal SAVE database and the diligent work of our Election Integrity Division, in partnership with federal law enforcement authorities. Every illegal vote cast diminishes the value of the vote of a lawful citizen and erodes public trust in our elections. Cases like this send a clear message that Louisiana takes election integrity seriously, and we will continue using every available tool to ensure that only eligible citizens participate in our elections.”

– Louisiana Secretary of State Nancy Landry
