ASSOCIATED WOMEN IN THE ARTS FALL SHOW AT LOUISIANA STATE ARCHIVES

BATON ROUGE, La.—Secretary of State Kyle Ardoin invites the public to visit the Louisiana State Archives to view the fall show of the Associated Women in the Arts. The exhibit, titled “35 Years of Excellence in Art,” will be on display from Sept. 24 through Oct. 30. A reception will be held on Oct. 17 from 6-8 p.m.

Curated by Christy Diniz Liffman, the exhibit showcases members’ most recent work that has not been shown in Baton Rouge before. Members’ art will feature a variety of subjects including sunsets, florals and Baton Rouge rendered in acrylics, watercolors and oils.

The mission of the Associated Women in the Arts is to advance the causes of women artists by creating opportunities for them to produce, exhibit and discuss their work. In doing so, the organization will help broaden the culture base of Baton Rouge and assist the cause of art throughout the state. For more information, visit 222AssociatedWomenintheArts.com.

Admission to the Archives is free, and the building is wheelchair accessible. The exhibit will be open during Archives operating hours: Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the first Saturday of the month from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information about the Archives, call 225.922.1000 or visit www.sos.la.gov/archives.
