TOMORROW LAST DAY FOR EARLY VOTING IN FALL PRIMARY ELECTION

BATON ROUGE, La.—Secretary of State Kyle Ardoin is reminding all eligible voters to take advantage of early voting. The last day of early voting will be Tuesday, Oct. 30 from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

“Many Louisianians have already cast their ballot during early voting ahead of Election Day,” said Secretary Ardoin. “These are important mid-term elections, and I encourage all Louisianians to exercise their right to vote.”

Voters should utilize Louisiana’s award-winning smartphone app, GeauxVote Mobile, to find out where to early vote as well as what’s on their ballot. Voters can also access this information in our Voter Portal by visiting <https://voterportal.sos.la.gov>. Across the state, ballot items include candidate races, constitutional amendments and local and parish propositions.

Citizens who want to vote early may do so in person at the parish Registrar of Voters Office or at other designated locations. For a complete listing of early voting locations, visit <https://voterportal.sos.la.gov/EarlyVoting>.

In addition to a Louisiana driver’s license, a Louisiana Special ID or a generally recognized ID with picture and signature, voters may now use LA Wallet, the new smartphone app by the Louisiana Office of Motor Vehicles. Poll commissioners have received training regarding the digital license as an acceptable form of picture ID.

Election Day for the open general/congressional/special primary is Saturday, Dec. 8.
