WEBSITE ELECTION RESULTS LIMITED, RSS FEED STILL AVAILABLE

Secretary of State Tom Schedler is announcing that on election night the graphical results will not be available. Website visitors will be redirected to the text-based results when accessing the graphical site.

Although the results will be limited, the RSS feed will be available. If you are not subscribed to the feed before election night, you may do so by visiting the Nov. 19, 2011 text-based page.

We are limiting access to the text-based site in an effort to simplify reporting. We are working toward a long-term solution to this issue, but we elected to utilize this option given the time frame between the two elections.
