ELECTION DAY REMINDERS

Secretary of State Tom Schedler reminds everyone that SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6TH is Election Day across the state. Eligible voters will be casting ballots for Congressional General elections and an assortment of local races and propositions beginning at 7:00 A.M.

In preparation for Saturday election activities, Secretary Schedler is encouraging voters to remember:
- Polls open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 8:00 p.m. Anyone in line at 8:00 p.m. will be allowed to vote.
- Sample ballots can be reviewed by downloading the GeauxVote Mobile app for smartphones or by visiting www.sos.la.gov.
- Voters can also sign up for text alerts via the GeauxVote Mobile smartphone app.
- Voters should bring an ID with them to vote (Louisiana driver's license, Louisiana Special ID card or another generally recognized picture identification card with your name and signature such as a passport). Voters without an ID will be required to fill out an affidavit but will be allowed to vote.
- Election results can be viewed in real-time via the GeauxVote Mobile app and the Secretary of State's website, www.sos.la.gov.

"I anticipate voter turnout could be 40 percent on Saturday, but I'm hoping voters prove me wrong by getting out and voting," said Secretary of State Tom Schedler. "This is an important congressional election and there are many local issues on the ballot in parishes across the state. Polls open at 7:00 a.m., so there is plenty of time throughout the day to put voting on your holiday to-do list. Don't miss the chance to have your voice heard. Geaux vote!"
